The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 25, to Saturday October 29, 1763.

Lisbon, October 5.

I have the Satisfaction to acquaint your Lordship, that his Royal Highness the Duke of York arrived here, in perfect Health, on Monday the 3d Instant, in His Majesty's Ship the Centurion. His Royal Highness is pleased to make Use of his Title of Earl of Ulster, under which Name his Arrival has been notified to the Court. His Royal Highness proposes staying about eight Days, and will then proceed from hence to Gibraltar. In the mean While, their most Faithful Majesties, and their Ministers, do every Thing in their Power, to make his Royal Highness's Residence as agreeable to him as possible.

His serene Highness the new born Infant, was christened on Sunday last the 2d Instant at the Royal Chapel of the Palace of Ajuda, by the Names of John-Francis-Xavier-de-Paula-Domingos-Antonio-Carlos-Cypriano; his Catholick Majesty and the Queen Mother of Spain being Sponsors.

The Expedition Packet arrived here Saturday the 1st Instant.

The Duke of York Packet Boat arrived here Yesterday.

Hague, October 25. The Succours for Berbices put to Sea on Thursday last with a fair Wind.

The Marquis de Havrincourt, late Ambassador from his most Christian Majesty to Sweden, being appointed to reside with the States General in the same Character, arrived here from Paris on Sunday last; and has this Day presented his Credentials.

By the last Accounts from the Mediterranean we hear, that the French Consul, and all the Merchants of that Nation, at Algiers, have been chained, and obliged to work as Slaves: And it is supposed, that the Ships, which were fitting out at Toulon, were intended to go against the Algerines. We learn too from Algiers, that His Britannick Majesty's Consul there, having been shot in the Arm by a drunken Soldier, he was the next Day hanged and quartered for that Crime.

The Princess Victoire, who was Niece to Prince Eugene of Savoy, and had resided many Years at the Court of Turin, died there the 12th Instant, in the 81st Year of her Age.

St. James's, October 29.

The King has been pleased to order Letters Patent to be passed under the Great Seal of the Kingdom of Ireland, containing a Grant unto the Right Honourable James Viscount Charlemount, and his Heirs Male, of the Dignity of an Earl of the said Kingdom, by the Name, Stile and Title of Earl of Charlemount in the County of Armagh.

Leicester House, October 25.

This Day his Excellency the Count de Guerchy, Ambassador in Ordinary from France;

And the Count de la Marmora, Envoy Extraordinary from Sardinia, had Private Audiences of her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales;

And afterwards of her Royal Highness Princess Augusta.

To both which they were introduced by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

St. James's, October 28.

This Day the Count de Seilern, Minister Plenipotentiary from the Emperor, had his first Private Audience of His Majesty to deliver his Credentials.

To which he was introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Sandwich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

Wednesday, September 7, 1763.

General Post-Office.

Whereas the Post-Boy carrying the Chester Mail of last Night from this Office, was this Morning, between the Hours of Three and Four o'Clock, attacked and robbed near the Six Mile Stone on Finchley Common, by Two Footpads, who opened and took out of the said Mail, the following Bags of Letters, viz.

| Loughborough, | Sheffield, |
| Lutterworth, | and |
| Rugby, | Rotherham; |

As likewise one Bag out of the Irish Mail, containing all the charged Letters, and some Bundles of Franks.

The Persons who committed this Robbery are described to be, one of them rather a tall Man, dressed in a light-coloured Fustian Frock, a black or dark-brown Wig, a slouched Hat, and pitted with the Small Pox; the other, rather a short Man, dressed in a Sailor's Jacket, with a great Number of small Buttons, a Hat upon his Head, and a checked Shirt on.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, both or either of the Persons who committed this

[ Price Three-pence. ]

this Robbery, will be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; or, if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery, whereby both or either of the Persons who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers, will, upon the Conviction of both or either of the Parties, be entitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and will also have His Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master General,
Anth. Todd, Secretary.

East India House, June 22, 1763.

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give Notice, That pursuant to a Resolution of the General Court of the said Company held this Day, the present Interest of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum on the said Company's Bonds shall cease, and determine on the 31st of December next; and that from and after that Day, the said Company's Bonds are to carry an Interest after the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, and the Proprietors thereof are hereby allowed to the 21st Day of November next inclusive, to bring the same to the Accomptant of the said Company, at their House in Leadenhall Street (if they think fit) to be marked in order to carry the said Interest of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum from the said 31st of December next accordingly; and that the Principal and Interest to the said 31st of December next, on all such Bonds as shall not be brought in to be marked on or before the said 21st Day of November as before-mentioned, shall be paid off; and that no further Reduction will be made in the Interest on the Company's Bonds without giving Six Months Notice.

East India House, October 19, 1763.

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, being informed that many Persons, possessed of the Company's Bonds, decline bringing them in to be marked, in order to a Reduction of Interest, pursuant to their Advertisement of the 22d of June last, under Apprehension, that such of them as are not brought in, will be continued at the present Rate of Interest, and such as are will carry less, think it proper, in order to obviate the Prejudices which may arise from a Notion so groundless in itself, and so dishonourable to the Company, to repeat the Declaration they made in that Advertisement, That pursuant to a Resolution of the General Court, such of the Bonds as are not brought in to be marked, on or before the 21st of November next, will be paid off; and to assure the Public, that at all Times, and in all Events, all the Company's Bonds will (as they always have) carry one and the same Rate of Interest.

General Post-Office, October 1, 1763.

His Majesty's Post-master General, for the further Improvement of Correspondence, have been pleased to extend the Bye-Night Mails, two additional Times a Week, from Newcastle to Edinburgh, and three additional Days a Week, from Carlisle to Annan and Dumfreis; as likewise, to establish a Six Days Post, between Edinburgh and Aberdeen, Glasgow, Greenock, and the several intermediate Towns, the Whole to commence from the 10th Instant.

The additional Mails will be dispatched, from this Office, for Edinburgh, on Mondays and Fridays; the Monday's Mail will arrive at Edinburgh on Fridays, and the Friday's Mail on Mondays.

The additional Mails, from Edinburgh, will be dispatched for England, on Tuesday and Friday Evenings; the Tuesday's Mail will arrive at this Office on Saturdays, and the Friday's Mail on Tuesdays.

And whereas great Numbers of Letters have hitherto been privately collected and delivered, as well in this Kingdom as in Scotland, contrary to Law, and to the Prejudice of the Revenue of this Office, Notice is hereby given, that all Carriers, Coachmen, Watermen, Wherrymen, Dispersers of Country News-papers, Higlers, and all other Persons whatsoever, hereafter detected in the illegal Collecting, Conveying, or Delivering of Letters and Packets, will be prosecuted with the utmost Severity.

The Penalty is Five Pounds for every Letter collected or delivered contrary to Law; and One Hundred Pounds for every Week such Practice is continued.

By Command of the Postmaster General,
Anth. Todd, Secretary.

St. James's, October 8, 1763.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That, on Tuesday, the Fourth Day of this Instant, between the Hours of One and Two o'Clock in the Morning, the House of Miss Hamersleys, upon the Park Hill, in New Windsor, was broke into by some Person or Persons unknown; that a Man came into the Room where the said Miss Hamersleys lay, and demanded their Money, and took from them their Pockets, in which their Money and Keys were; that the said Pockets were afterwards found in Windsor Little Park, with their Keys and other Things, but, that their Money, and a Shagreen Case of Instruments, were gone; and that the said Person or Persons had murdered Mary Holland, the Maid-Servant of the said House, in her Room, by tying a small Line, like a Jack-Line, twice round her Neck very tight, which choaked her: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Robbery and Murder, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon, as also a Reward of One Hundred Pounds Sterling, to any One of them (except the Person who actually committed the said Murder) who shall discover his, or her, Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Facts, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof; the said Reward of One Hundred Pounds Sterling, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to the Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as above excepted) upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Criminals.

DUNK HALIFAX.

The Governors of the Charity for the Relief of Poor Widows and Children of Clergymen, do hereby give Notice, that their Annual General Court appointed by their Charter, will be held at the Corporation Office, N° 13. in the Paper Buildings in the Inner Temple, London, on Thursday the 10th Day of November next, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, for the Choice of Officers for the Year ensuing.

Thomas Wall, Reg.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of His Majesty's Ship Lyme, who were actually on Board at the Taking the Cargo of the Prothee, That they will be paid their respective Shares at Mr. Samuel Leeke's in Portsmouth, on Monday the 21st of November, 1763; and the Shares remaining unpaid, will be recalled at the said Place, the Second Monday in every Month, for three Years to come.

John Crucket, Agent.
